

Definition

An incident resulting in a fatality or serious injury to a person as a result from or associated with railway operations.

CAT
A Immediate

Any incident (not elsewhere reportable as a Category A), including self-harm events that resulted in a fatality or serious injury to a person as a result from or associated with railway operations.
Any incident of a fatality or serious injury to a rail safety worker whilst performing rail safety work.

CAT
C Annual

All fatalities and serious injuries are reportable as a Category A or B occurrence.

CAT
B
72hrs

Any road vehicle incident resulting in a serious injury or fatality of train crew, on roster while in transit to or from a service.

Not Reportable to ONRSR

Fatalities or serious injuries (to members of the public, passengers and trespassers) as a result of slip, trips or falls on railway premises, not directly associated with railway operation.
Excludes slips trips and falls that occur on railway premises not directly associated with train movement or interaction, for example:

- on a concourse;
- at the ticket barriers/gates;
- on stairs and escalators not on rolling stock.